

Attitude Determines Outcome

6 simple principles can make sure you never have a bad day again.

- 1 Outlook determines outcome.
- 2 Work harder on yourself than anything else.
- 3 You won't make yourself feel better by hurting another.
- 4 Be ready to respond, not react.
- 5 Be careful what you say. It's hard to regain trust if you lose it.
- 6 We're all in the people business. Connecting makes all the difference.
